

Morocco Arrival Checklist

With an eVisa, carry your passport, the printed eVisa and, if you used one, your supporting visa or residence permit. Enter within 180 days of the date of issue and stay up to 30 days. With an AEVM: one entry and a stay of up to 90 days from the date of entry, before the “valid until” date on your AEVM.

1. Before you fly

- ☐ The name, date of birth and passport number on your eVisa match your passport exactly.
- ☐ You travel on the same passport you applied with.
- ☐ Your arrival date falls within the validity of your eVisa or AEVM.
- ☐ Print your eVisa or AEVM and keep a copy on your phone. The airline may check it at check-in.

2. In your hand luggage (not in checked baggage)

- ☐ Your passport and the printed eVisa or AEVM.
- ☐ The original supporting visa or residence permit, if you applied with one.
- ☐ Your accommodation details and a return or onward ticket. Whether they are asked for depends on your nationality, so carry them anyway.
- ☐ Every traveller, children included, has their own eVisa or AEVM.

3. At passport control

- ☐ The officer checks your passport and your eVisa and may ask about the purpose of your trip, where you are staying and for how long. Your answers should match your application.
- ☐ An eVisa does not confer an irrevocable right of entry. The border officer makes the final decision and can refuse anyone who does not meet the conditions or cannot show the required evidence.

4. Your dates

	eVisa	AEVM
Window to enter	180 days from the date of issue	Until the "valid until" date on your AEVM
Maximum stay	30 days from the day you enter	90 days from the day you enter
Entries	1 (single entry)	1 (single entry)

5. During your stay and when you leave

- ☐ Single entry: once you leave Morocco, your eVisa or AEVM is used up, even for a short trip across the border and back.
- ☐ Your passport stays valid for your whole stay in Morocco.
- ☐ You leave Morocco before your maximum stay ends.

6. AEVM travellers (Republic of the Congo, Ecuador, Ghana, Guinea)

The official AEVM form asks you to confirm these travel conditions, so carry the proof:

- ☐ Your AEVM and the documents you applied with: national ID card, last 3 months' bank statement, hotel reservation.
- ☐ Sufficient funds: at least 70 EUR per day of your stay.
- ☐ A return ticket.
- ☐ A hotel reservation or an invitation.
- ☐ A passport that is valid on the day you leave Morocco.
